ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Last passenger train on this track and between Lithuania and Latvia was a night train Vilnius - St. Petersburg. This train was cancelled in 2015. In 2017 Latvian passenger trains go as far as Daugavpils, Lithuanian trains as far as Turmantas, leaving a gap of about 26 km. After the editorial deadline of this inventory weekend services were reintroduced on this cross-border rail connection in January 2018.
